

Boys Make 'Sea Going Bicycle'

Students in the shops at Grover Cleveland school have constructed a hydrocycle, shown here. Much pleasure was found by the boys in riding about the bay on their "sea going bicycle." In the picture, left to right—Earl Lucas, instructor; Arnold Nellus, Billy Swanson and Robert Peterson. Lawrence Kohler is astride the cycle.

